MYERSTOWN Sheds & Fencing

694 East Lincoln Avenue, Myerstown, PA • 717-866-7015

Monday-Friday 7:30am-5pm & Saturday 7:30am-12pm • myerstownsheds.com

Myerstown Sheds & Fencing is a family owned and operated business that dates back into the late 1970's. Their business was founded on the belief that high quality products should be offered to the community at a great price while not compromising excellent customer service. With this mission in mind, they started offering a line of vacuum cleaners including accessories, parts and service that continues to this day. As time went on, they started adding to their list of product offerings including sheds in 1984 and fencing in 1987. Whether you're needing a wood or vinyl shed, they have it. If you're needing vinyl, aluminum or chain-link fencing, they've got you covered. This selection of products earned them the name of Myerstown Sheds & Fencing.

As word spread of the value of the products that Myerstown Sheds & Fencing offered, their business grew quickly. It wasn't long before they brought a host of new products to the market including a large selection of outdoor poly furniture, pergolas, arbors, mailboxes, bird feeders, cupolas and much more!

In 2001, they expanded their business with a new location in Annville, PA. This broadened their ability to service homes in Hershey, Harrisburg, Palmyra and other surrounding areas. In 2007 the lot they were renting became unavailable which led to moving the store to Palmyra. This location, now called Palmyra Country Store, continues to offer all the products that their corporate location offers with the addition of many home décor & craft items.

In 2012, faced with the need to maintain a competitive edge, they started manufacturing their own line of poly Adirondack chairs. They were no stranger to the poly furniture market and because of this, the quality that they build into the chairs is second to none. They currently offer 19 different colors as well as the option to mix and match these colors which give you an almost limitless array of options to match your tastes. Although the Adirondack chair was already familiar to the market, they took it one step farther by offering it in an easily foldable design. This new venture has proven to be a great success and has provided people all over the East coast with top-of-the-line poly Adirondack chairs.

With the increase in business and desire to serve more of the community, they opened another store located in Schuylkill Haven in 2013. This new location had a large lot for sheds and an expansive showroom thereby enabling them to offer a wide variety of in-stock items to better serve their customers.

Myerstown Sheds & Fencing continues to offer high quality products including their entire line of vinyl and aluminum fencing and railing with limited lifetime warranties as well as excellent customer service. Let them take the pain and headache out of getting a fence installed or putting your shed in place. They offer free no-obligation on-site estimates and with over 40 years in business, they are here to give you the products you want at a value you can afford.

The Easter Egg Tree

of Mary Weigley

Reading Eagle in 1876: R. D. Lingle, druggist, at Tenth and Chestnut, has in his parlor, for the pleasure of his little daughters, a new kind of tree, which was placed there on Easter Eve, and has been called an "Easter Egg Tree." Spruce boughs are hung with egg shells beautifully ornamented with paint, gilt, and colored paper. Postcards, produced for the American market, featured egg trees. The Lebanon Daily News mentioned an egg tree in 1877: An Easter Novelty. On Sunday last we were shown an Easter decoration that was quite a novelty. A tree, similar to a Christmas tree, adorned with mottled and vary-colored eggs, to please the children and excite their fancy. This custom continues today, with outside trees adorned with colored eggs.

Brightly colored eggs decorating the branches of a small tree at Easter has been a Pennsylvania German tradition for many years. Trees were decorated both inside and outside; although outside trees usually held only undyed eggs. The publication of the book, The Egg Tree by Katherine Milhous, made the custom of decorating a tree with brightly colored eggs a nationwide custom and not just a Pennsylvania German tradition. The custom was popular long before the publication of the book The Egg Tree. An Easter egg tree appeared in the

This has been a family adventure to see the first issue of myCOMMUNITY, which was our original name, sent out in March 2013 to over 9,400 homes and businesses. In July and August of 2013 the entrance of a new myCOMMUNITY went out to the West Berks communities reaching over 11,000 homes and businesses. In the month of September 2013 we merged the East Lebanon and West Berks areas. myCOMMUNITY was reaching over 23,000 homes and businesses! We had a name change in October of 2015 to our current name, Quail Flyer®! Quail is an acronym - Quality Unifier Accenting Industries Locally! Why Quail Flyer? Quail live in coveys and their survival is dependent on working and living together as a group. They represent what community should be. Keeping our business local helps the community thrive and grow! Visit the many businesses throughout the communities. You will find quality, unique products and services. We are a family owned and locally operated direct mail advertising flyer, here to serve you with local advertising.
